

BUILDING THE PATH TO PEACE

JOURNEY TO THE HEADWATERS OF RESTORATIVE JUSTICE

July 20—25 2014 • Carcross, Yukon Territory

Wilderness retreat for restorative justice practitioners and the helping professions

Thirty years ago Phil and Harold Gatensby, two brothers of the Tlingit Nation from Carcross, introduced Peacemaking Circles into contemporary society. Today, these award-winning facilitators, peacemakers and activists have inspired people from Canada to Norway and from South Africa to the Balkans with the richness of their traditional knowledge and wisdom.

This summer, Harold and Phil will share their teachings with those who wish to deepen their dedication to healing and transformation.

Join us on the land for an unforgettable week of learning, connection and gathering power in the traditional values and voices that gave life to restorative justice.

Retreat cost: $1650 per person. Includes:

- ◇ Advanced Peacemaking Circle training and reflective wilderness-based programming
- ◇ Meals and camping accommodations
- ◇ Roundtrip transportation from Whitehorse to wilderness site

For more information contact Aaron Lyons, Fraser Region Community Justice Initiatives, at 604-534-5515 or training@cjibc.org.

Spaces are limited; participants accepted on a first come, first serve basis.

COMMUNITY JUSTICE INITIATIVES ASSOCIATION

Fraser Region, British Columbia